The membership fee for this year remains the same at £5 for all members. Members who have not paid by 31st December will be considered as lapsed, will forfeit the right to win the member's bingo bonus, and will have to be signed in until their membership subscription is paid!

Sunday night bingo is fairly well supported and will continue for the time being in the same format as now. The £50 member's bonus on 50 numbers or less will remain on the whole of the first book. Until 1st January any member from last year will still be eligible to win this, but after then only paid up members will be allowed to claim.

Saturday night bingo is at the moment poorly supported. The Committee have decided to continue with the Saturday Bingo, with the snowball (which can be won by members or visitors), until the next Committee meeting in February. Watch the notice board for the value of the snowball.

If support is not forthcoming the Saturday bingo may be scrapped!
